Dear Parents/Carers,

This Thursday, 3rd March, is World Book Day. It is a fantastic opportunity to discuss, explore and just LOVE reading and talking about our favourite texts.

We have a range of activities planned in school – but our core focus is for each class to have the opportunity to just enjoy books. We will be sharing all of our World Book Day activities on the school Twitter feed across the day.

One thing we have decided against this year, however, is dressing up. We fully appreciate the financial constraints on many this year and the added anxiety this causes for our families. We are also extremely mindful that, as a school, we are wanting to spend the day promoting a love of reading and ensure the day is solely focused on books and that is what we plan to do.

Some of the activities we have planned in school are:

- Whole school assembly
- Decorate favourite characters
- Reading buddy sessions
- Book talk and book reviews
- Reading quizzes
- Special World Book Day food menu

All children, along with their class teachers, will have the opportunity to select new, exciting texts that have only just been released. We will then be purchasing these books for each of the classes across school.

We cannot wait to share all our amazing activities across school,

Mr White
