

Theme: At the market		Year 5		Subjects: French
What should I already know? How does this link to past learning?		What vocabulary should I learn?		French sounds
- Numbers from 1 - 70 - The names of some fruits - Basic conversation vocabulary - How to ask politely for an item		Quantities		Silent letters at the end of words
		an apple some apples 3 apples a kilogram of apples 400g of apples une pomme des pommes trois pommes un kilo de pommes quatre cents grammes de pommes
What should I know by the end?		Fruit and vegetables
Multiples of 100 - In French, to write or say a multiple of 100, we simply say the digit then 'cents'. e.g. 200 – deux cents - We add an 's' onto 'cent' because in French we say 'two hundreds' rather than 'two hundred'		some tomatoes some bananas some apples some strawberries some oranges some pears some carrots some potatoes a lettuce a cucumber des tomates des bananes des pommes des fraises des oranges des poires des carottes des pommes de terre une laitue – a lettuce un concombre – a cucumber		What should I be able to do by the end?
Quantities When giving quantities in weight (kg or g), we must remember to take off the article (une, un, des, les, le or la), because the 'de' replaces the article. e.g. an apple – une pomme ☺ a kilo of apples – un kilo de pommes ☺ NOT – un kilo de une pomme		Buying and selling		How will I use this learning in the future?
Buying and selling - If you are the market owner and someone asks you for something: e.g. 'Have you got bananas?' You cannot just say 'Oui, j'ai.' (Yes I have) or 'Non, je n'ai pas.' (No, I don't have.) This doesn't make sense in French! - You must say 'Oui, j'ai des bananes.' Or 'Non, je n'ai pas des bananes.'		What would you like? I would like... Have you got...? Yes, I have... No, I don't have... How much is it? It costs __ euros. You're welcome! Qu'est-ce que tu voudrais? Je voudrais... Avez-vous...? Oui, j'ai... Non, je n'ai pas... C'est combien? Ça coûte __ euros. De rien!		- Initiating different themes of conversation e.g. asking questions about someone's identity. - Use numbers in other contexts e.g. telling the time
